

Confluence & JIRA outage, September 9, 1800-1930 PDT

In order to re-establish single-sign-on between Confluence, JIRA and Crowd, we will have an outage starting at 6pm on Tuesday, September 9th. The outage may take up to 1.5 hours. Confluence and JIRA will be unavailable (intermittently) during this period. Users should save their work before the outage. Send any questions to apps-admin@slac.stanford.edu.
