

"Download All" for attachments will no longer work

Due to a security issue, the "Download All" attachments" link on the attachment management panel will no longer work. Though it will still appear for pages which have more than one attachment, it will generate an error.

Individual attachments can still be downloaded.