Participation in Multiwavelength Observing Campaign - Sample

Observer: _
Target:
are a co-author contributing with data collected d separately. Yet the (potential) si publication.	gn, the policy on data sharing word a resulting multiwavelength of data, you also gain the right of uring the campaign. Anyone we those separate publications sharingle instrument publications (and ate in the observing campaign	publication unless your participating in the interest of the contributes data kert ould be done in a coordinate.	u just want an acknown terpretation of the contemps the right to pubordinated way, so that y with the multiwave	owledgment. By overall (reduced) blish those data at we try to have elength
Contact information (e-mail, phone):
Details of my Obs.	observation: Observer/PI/Contact	Observations	Frequency or	Comments
Facility		planned for	wavelength
Please check
A) This information should be kept confidentially.  B) This information can be distributed among the participating scientists of this campaign, in particular to identify potential (quasi) simultaneous observations. (DEFAULT) at other wave	d B): Do you want us to helengths? Please give belo order to enhance your se	ow all additional ir	formation that of	ther observers			