

Accomplishments for week ending 2013-05-17

Cyber Safety (critical to keep all Lab computing services in operation)

Scientific Computing Services provided responses, documentation and artifacts for the IG audit questions regarding Unix infrastructure for Configuration Management, Identity and Access Management, and Remote Access Management. This is in support of our Cyber Safety program at SLAC and prepares us for the audit that will occur at the end of May.