

Pre-Launch

I've been invited to a workshop in Paris, Jan 16-17 2005, organized by the Nancay radiotelescope here in France. They have good pulsar timing facilities and want more customers. So I'll be putting together a talk for them over the next month, which I'll post here for review, unless I forget.