

AI at SLAC Home

Welcome to the Artificial Intelligence at SLAC confluence page! This site is for topics related to artificial intelligence and machine learning that are being worked on at SLAC. We hope to provide a central site to organize projects, share knowledge, and build community and technical expertise in this area.

To help discussion and collaboration, there is a #comp-ml channel at the community here <https://slac.slack.com/signup>

Questions: contact David Schneider - davidsch@slac.stanford.edu, or Daniel Ratner dratner@slac.stanford.edu
