Possible momentary interruption in authentication

The password for the service account used for confluence/crowd authentication with unix account/password will be changed on Tuesday, 12/13, and about 5:30pm. There may be a period of a minute or two when new authentication with unix accounts fails. Existing logins will not be effected.