

What is GDML

GDML stands for "Geometry Description Markup Language". It is an XML format for describing detector geometries. GDML provides facilities for defining constants and expressions, elements and materials, geometric solids (shapes), and nested volumes. GDML has bindings to python, ROOT, and Geant4.