

PingER and Covid-19 and Central America

Costa Rica stands out having a pronounced increase starting around the middle of March and ending in the second week of April.

To look more carefully at the countries with much lower IPDVs we looked at the data with Costa Rica removed.

