Netflow Monitoring

Netflow is a standardised method of obtaining detailed passive networking information from network routers.

SLAC is working in conjunction with BNL to provide a flexible and detailed backend and frontend solution to visualise netflow information.

An existing in situ development platform is available for testing purposes at http://iepmbw.bnl.org/netflow/index.html. Note that it currently only supports Firefox browsers.

Projects
Netflow Presentation Frontend
FlowScan-JKFlow Feature Extensions

Documentation

Project	Description
Netflow Installation	Step-by-step installation instructions
Netflow Configuration	Configuration details
Netflow Extensions and Documentation	Documentation of the logic flow of the architecture and extensions made by Akbar