

COMPLETED -- Outage to implement new Confluence and JIRA Login Procedures

EDenys 2/13/11 1615 -- Outage concluded ahead of schedule. Confluence and JIRA are online and integrated with Crowd.

Starting on Sunday 02/13/2011, SLAC will switch to a new system for logging in to confluence and jira. Confluence will be down starting at 12 PM PST on Sunday and will probably be down for most of the rest of the day. When it comes back up it will feature a new login system integrated more closely with SLAC's unix/windows accounts. For details please see Confluence JIRA Login Procedures.

If you experience any problems logging in or accessing confluence and jira content on Monday please e-mail giving as much details about the problem as possible.

confluence-admin@slac.stanford.edu
